The Republican Nominee.

There seems little doubt but that Gen. Taylor the present Re-publican Attorney-General, will be, the Republican nominee for Governor. His instructions are more than both his competitors, Judge Pratt and Auditor Stone combined, though there are enough counties not yet reported to reverse shat. Democratic paenough counties not yet reported to reverse that. Democratic pa-pers seem to think that Taylor will be its easiest to beat of the thare, from the fact that he was a bitter enemy of Gov. Bradley and the friend of Hunter, and that Bradleys friend will knife bim.

Wheat Prices.

The papers are disposed to modify former reports as to full wheat yield in the United States, wheat yield in the United States, but the Improved prospects in Russia and Roumania, it is claimed more than off-sets the short yield in certain sections in this country. Prices will be normal, with slight tendency to advance. Last year appeared to be a good year for farmers to hold their wheat, which many did and lost. It was he larmers to hold their wheal, which many did, and lost. It may be again this year, but there are more reasons now to suggest that prices ultimately will advance than there were in 1898. This is dangerous ground however, and each tarmer should be governed by
